

The 12th Life Cycle Assessment Conference: Next-generation LCA to support sustainability transitions

The 12th Life Cycle Conference: 'Next-generation LCA to support sustainability transitions', hosted by the Australian Life Cycle Assessment Society, will be held at the Novotel on Collins in Melbourne on 18-20 November 2025.

Sponsorship opportunities are available, and a range of packages are outlined in this document offering a variety of exposure levels at the Conference. Promotional opportunities also exist through attendance at the conference social functions to meet with delegates.

The Conference Committee appreciates your consideration of support for this event and looks forward to the opportunity to develop a mutually beneficial partnership.

THE CONFERENCE

The transition towards a sustainable society is hampered by rapidly changing and impacted environments, and uncertainty in our estimations of the best paths for production systems. The interplay of technological advancement, policy and deepening environmental degradation will require innovative and next-generation LCA tools to address and support our efforts for change.

The need for sustainability transition requires intensive analyses and consideration across supply chains. Sustainability transition will facilitate an opportunity for our society to deal with complex and important challenges and offer opportunities for the efficient use of resources. As countries, regions, and corporations transition into alternative forms of products, energy, and services, there is a need for tools and knowledge to achieve optimal outcomes.

Life Cycle Assessment continues to evolve to meet the changing needs of society and provides a holistic and scientifically validated impact assessment approach that is applicable to all segments of society and the economy, for products, services and organisations.

Join the Australian Life Cycle Assessment Society (ALCAS) for the 12th LCA Conference in Melbourne, Australia. The Conference will bring together climate and energy practitioners, green building designers, product manufacturers and suppliers, industry users of LCAs and EPDs, government, researchers and LCA professionals to network, learn and debate.

The Conference will incorporate the following themes:

- LCA Supporting Global/National/ Industry Responses
- LCA-based Carbon (GHG) Accounting Supporting Net Zero, Neutrality Pathways and Certification Responses
- Biogenic Carbon
- LCA Supporting Circularity and Circular Economies Responses
- Built Environment Applications and Innovations

SPONSORSHIP BENEFITS

Conference sponsorship will provide positive results and raise your profile to a potential 250 customers. Your company will maintain a high profile in valuable target markets before, during and following the conference.

A wide range of sponsorship opportunities are available ranging from half page advertisements right through to Conference Partner status and its associated benefits – opportunities for organisations large and small.

Some of the benefits include:

- Gain exposure in sustainability markets before, during and following the conference.
- Demonstrate your organisation's commitment to the profession.
- Consolidate and develop relationships. Enable your organisation's representatives to mix informally with industry professionals, leaders, local governance personnel, planners and speakers.
- The conference will allow your organisation to benefit significantly from constant exposure to an interested, relevant and influential audience in a relaxed environment, away from the competition of everyday distractions.

All sponsorship and exhibition prices in the document are in Australian dollars and are inclusive of GST.

Please email conference@alcas.asn.au for further information or to discuss your sponsorship requirements.
